I love this time of year when so much is happening in school and the children (and adults) are getting ready for Christmas.

The Elf run in aid of the Hospice for the Good Shepherd was a wonderful event and you all raised £602. Which is an incredible amount and will be gratefully received.

Acorn Class' nativity really got everyone into the festive spirit, with children speaking, acting and singing with such enthusiasm. Thank you to everyone who came to see the performances.

We welcomed a touring pantomime group this week who performed their version of the nativity 'Sweet child of mine'. A modern approach that the children really enjoyed.

Tonight Willow Class will be celebrating with our school Christmas carol concert which everyone is welcome to attend. Come and sing with us at 5.30pm. Afterwards we will be making our way to the Christmas Tree light's switch on which is at 6.30pm. A truly magical time for everyone. Especially as there are mince pies and mulled wine to refresh us in the village hall.

Christmas dinner tomorrow and the Barrow Christmas Capers on Thursday will round off what has been a successful Autumn term. Can I take this opportunity to wish you and your families a healthy, happy and blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Christmas Tree at Chester Cathedral

Please take time to visit our Christmas Tree which the school has decorated at Chester Cathedral. The display of trees are amazing, but ours does look really fantastic as the children have made all the decorations themselves!

(Thanks to Ms Hughes and Mrs Nolan for taking time to decorate it.)

PTFA NEWS

The Christmas Fayre raised nearly £1400 which is a fantastic effort. Thank you so much to everyone who donated, spent their money, ran the stalls, helped set up and tidy away, a true community effort!
